

ABSTRACT

The present invention relates to complexes of alpha (2) macroglobulin associated 5 with antigenic molecules for use in immunotherapy. The invention relates to methods for using such compositions in the diagnosis and treatment of immune disorders, proliferative disorders, and infectious diseases.

10

15

20

25

30

35